Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second easily. Ollean was away running but tired after going three quarters. L W was well handled and ran a good race. Beauchamp used good judgment in not chasing the leaders first part. He had to hustle Remf on the stretch turn. Orinda closed considerable ground from where she got off. Viscount was poorly ridden. He sprawled all over the track.

Winner—B. h, 5, by Sir Modred—Parthenia.
Start good. Won driving. Manchester was off well, suited to the going, finely ridden, and was best. The race is one of peculiarity and not worth deep consideration. Sapelo finished strong. He came again after being apparently beaten on the stretch turn. Sir Play was hindered on the first turn, forced into the deep going at the rails, was waited with and came fast quarter. Orion quit after running quite easily for three-quarters. He will do better next time. Howe was badly handled. Quickly was sore in her preliminary, got a lethargic ride and was eased up in the stretch.
Scratched—Arabian, 105; Lincoln II, 104.

Winner—B. c, by Falsetto—Cachuca.
Start straggling. Won driving. George Boyd was best. He is very promising and likes a route. Baiter ran a good race. He was somewhat retarded by the deep going on the rail. Talal outrode Scherrer, too. Olney came very fast last quarter and should improve from now on. Spencer made up ground throughout the race and finished like a lion. He is a good colt. Domestic showed fair form for a green colt. Come Quick is quite small and seems off. She was not able to extend herself. Chambray was prominent to the stretch and off very badly. He ran up to his field with a great burst of speed. Junior was used up at the post. He is very fast but is not seasoned. Briar Hill bolted on the first turn and is a bad colt.
Scratched—Don't Care, 117; Fleeting Gold, 114; May Frances, 114.

9908 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. $800 added. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 25 1/2, 50 1/2, 1:16 1/2, 1:43.
Winner—Ch. c, by Bramble—Mary M.
Start good. Won driving. Lincoln was best. He was in a pocket to the stretch turn and in the deep going on the rail. He finished like a horse who loves contention. Arabian, under weak handling, ran a good game race. Azure likes a route, but needs a strong rider. He was poorly handled. Petrel fell out of the race at the start, losing several lengths. He came fast through the stretch and was eased up. Passover is quite speedy but was too much used. He seemed to be a contender at the head of the stretch. Was pulled up last sixteen.
Scratched—Arbuckle, 106; Loch Glyn, 108.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Harry O'Fallon—Lady Royster.
Start good. Won handily. Lehman was best. He finished very strong. It was an extra good race. Lehman was closely ridden to orders. He waited on the pacemakers. Premier, as the courier, had all the worst of it and wound up gamely. Eder was slow to get in motion. He came like a gladiator last three-quarters and made a wide stretch turn. The Swain was poorly handled and took the long route. He finished strong and was a good horse. Skater is a plodder. He wants a route. He rated along in the same place throughout and was eased up last furlong.
Scratched—The Winner, 122; Cham, 98; Belmar, 120; Brandywine, 108.
Overweights—Dutch Skater, 11 pounds.

fast class of horses. Chum ran an honest race. He was outclassed. Tom Cromwell finished like a stalwart. His forte is a distance—a mile or over. Billali showed some speed, but stopped to nothing in the stretch. Hi Daddy has lost his speed from running in the mud. Anson was outclassed but had no chance at the start.
Scratched—Nick, 121; Decide, 118; Ein, 112.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Deceiver—Miss Charmer.
Start good. Won easily. Decide was a wild horse. He was the best at the distance. He is a keen tool on speed. Green Jacket was unable to keep up with the terrific early pace. But he came like a real good one in the stretch. If a furlong further, he would have won. Takanassee was full of speed, but quit last eighth. She was very badly handled at the end and swerved into the fence under the whip. Prompt showed speed, but O'Connor couldn't help him. Michael was outclassed.

Winner—Ch. m, 5, by Hanover—May Lady.
Post 7 minutes. Start perfect. Won hand ridden and with some in reserve; second, third and fourth driving hard. Miss Young was the best. She ran one of her good races. Merry Monarch was short. Bloss rode him well and saved a lot of ground on stretch turn. Nikita showed a lot of speed. She was interfered with on the last turn. Watch her. She should win soon. Southworth ran an honest race. He had no excuses. Those in front were better than he. Bryan finished with determination. Cochina was interfered with shortly after the start and could never get through.
Scratched—Teeta May, 97; Jersey Lad, 97; Lew Hopper, 105.

Winner—B. f, by Sir Dixon—Lady Elizabeth.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth doing their best. Mary Kinsella was the best seasoned. She is a game filly though and Magnusson rode a strong finish on her. Domozetta and Tapestry were away running. The former will not be a maiden long. Ophelia Copeland ran a surprising race in the light of her last. Nathanson is a big long striding fellow and was bumped about a good deal. He likes a route and should win soon. Shipman had no excuse. He got away well.
Scratched—May Gooderson, 102; Jim's Twin, 110; Borden, 110; Raymond F, 105; Chinkapin, 102; Belle of Corsica, 102; Bob Garnet, 102; Sister Ella, 102.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:02½, 1:16½.

Winner—Ch. g, by Whitney—Lyon Lady.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth under keen pressure. Whirlaway was the best. He acted insanely at the post and was interfered with several times during the race. He is a long strider and interference makes a great difference to him. Newsgatherer finished like a good horse. He had a stormy passage. Senator Quay could not get out his own way. Carminella had a lot of early speed.

Time, 12½, 25½, 37½, 50, 1:02½, 1:08½.

Winner—Br. f, by Bramble—Caledonia.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long hard drive; second, third and fourth driving also. Miss Gussie should have won. The boy made too much use of her early and foolishly went to his whip at the sixteenth pole. By doing so he dropped the filly's head. Algareta is as game as a pebble. She was under a drive the last three furlongs. Hardly was off badly and interfered with often. She swerved a bit too under punishment at the head of the stretch. Throw her race out. Presbyterian ran an honest race. He packs weight like a good one.

Time, 2½, 5½, 1:03½, 1:16½, 1:42½, 1:55½.

Winner—Ch. m, 5, by El Rio Rey—Atelia.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving; third eased up in last twenty yards. Mandolina was the best. She was perfectly handled and ran true the entire route. David Tenny is a sweet article right now. He was a trifle short and will turn the tables next time. Ben Waddell warmed up as stiff as a cart horse and did all his racing the last quarter. He is an honest horse, but has little class. Indra was killed off by Redskin the first three quarters. The pace put Redskin to sleep, though. Harry Shannon was poorly handled. Watch Necedah; she can win among her own.
Overweights—Necedah, 5 pounds; Mace, 2; Ben Waddell, 2.

*Disqualified for foul.
Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Falsetto—Marmoset.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won pulled up; next four driving hard. Lizzie Miles out-classed the lot. She was interfered with early and had to run around her field. Pitfall had a rough road. He was badly interfered with at the head of the stretch and fell to his knees. It looked as though Santa Cruz swerved at the head of the stretch. At any rate he was tired and staggering at the finish. Ida Wagner showed some speed. So did Dad's Daughter. Watch Lettie. She will win soon.
Scratched—Sligo, 99; Black Jack, 102; Lady Maud, 97; Lady Dixon, 97; Lillian Wilkes, 89; Hessville, 91.
